FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE LATE JOYS PERFORM THE BEATLES' REVOLVER LIVE AT THE CAROUSEL LOUNGE IN "RE:REVOLVER 2020"

Austin Brit-Pop pop-rockers The Late Joys perform the Beatles' Revolver in its entirety, as well as other songs from the era, in two shows at the Carousel Lounge, January 25, 2020.

Austin, TX (December, 11, 2019) — The Beatles' 1966 album Revolver might be the band's most important record, a groundbreaking, trailblazing, cliché-busting 35 minutes of musical magic. This January 25, Austin Brit-Pop rockers The Late Joys and special guests perform Revolver in its entirety in "Re:Revolver 2020," live at the iconic Carousel Lounge. Two performances feature the Fab Four's seminal work, as well as performances of contemporary songs by The Zombies, The Who, The Rolling Stones, and more.

"We asked ourselves what it would sound like to perform the album, live, the way the Beatles might have, with just four musicians and a little help from our friends," says drummer Matt Patterson. "We can't recreate all of the sounds from the original studio album, but we can put on a rocking show that audiences are gonna love."
